Position Posting: China Data Strategist

Location: Mainland China

This is a unique opportunity for a fluent Mandarin and English speaker to join a high profile backed Fintech firm. Part of a small, dynamic and fast-paced team, you will be based in mainland China working closely with the London team. Applicants should be available immediately or ASAP. Please submit your CV and cover letter, explaining your interest in alternative data.

COMPANY

Headquartered in London, with an office in New York, Neudata helps sophisticated investment managers find new data sources, alternative data, that can provide unique, timely and granular records of often imperceptible economic activity. Neudata's alternative data expertise lies in uncovering unique datasets from non-conventional sources that are not available on established and commonly used data platforms. Neudata partners with investment managers to uncover and select overlooked information and focus on global equity, currency, commodity, fixed income and derivatives market intelligence.

The Neudata team and its global data-scouting network are at the forefront of data innovation for investment management. Our clients include some of the most successful and innovative data and technology driven hedge funds in the US, Europe and Asia.

JOB DESCRIPTION

The work involves research into companies that produce alternative data and datasets. The analyst will conduct research calls with data providers and produce research reports for our data solutions and services. This is an opportunity to become a key team member at our firm.

ROLE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Conducting phone and in person research calls with data and analytics providers
- Must be fluent in Mandarin and English
- Gathering data and analysis of alternative data sources
- Writing research reports
- Scheduling meetings and liaising with multiple external partners and firms
- Updating information and research on existing datasets
- Ongoing development of our due diligence questionnaire and analysis techniques
- The role is primarily of a qualitative rather than quantitative nature
- Opportunity to lead the China office and expansion

KEY SKILLS

- Excellent spoken and written Mandarin and English in order to write reports and produce content in English
- Rigor and a strong work ethic with attention to detail
- Strong organisational and multi-tasking skills are crucial
- Based in mainland China, Shanghai or other city

This is a fabulous opportunity to be part of an innovative start-up which is at the center of a data-driven paradigm shift in the Asset Management and FinTech industries.

Applicants should be available immediately.
